Definitions as per Alberta Beach Land Use Bylaw 252-17:

“HOME OCCUPATION” – means secondary use of a dwelling or accessory building by a resident of the dwelling for a business that involves direct retail sales or provision of services from the property.

“HOME OFFICE” - means a “HOME OCCUPATION” where the following are adhered to:

- a) No individual other than the permanent resident of the dwelling unit operates the home office;
- b) No client or customer is received in the dwelling unit for business purposes;
- c) The home office does not generate any pedestrian or vehicular traffic;
- d) There are no on-site exterior signs or advertisements of the home office;
- e) No materials, goods or finished products for business purposes are stored on-site; and
- f) The home office is operated as an accessory use only and must not change the residential character or external appearance of the dwelling unit;

Sec. 4.19 of Alberta Beach Land Use Bylaw 252-17 “HOME OCCUPATIONS” – states:

1. Home occupations (Home Based Businesses) shall comply with the following provisions:

- a) Home occupations shall not be allowed on a site unless a dwelling is located on the site on which the home occupation is to be located.
- b) All development permits issued for home occupations shall be revocable at any time by the Development Authority, if, in its opinion, the home occupation is or has become detrimental to amenities of the neighborhood in which it is located or if there is any change or intensification of the home occupation as originally approved.
- c) The Development Authority may, in its sole discretion, place time limits on the period for which a development permit for a home occupation is valid.
- d) No home occupation shall substantially change the principal character of external appearance of the dwelling involved or of any accessory buildings.
- e) Home occupations shall be incidental and subordinate to the principal use of the dwelling and/or garage and shall not be conducted within any other structures on the property.
- f) There shall be no outdoor business activity, or outdoor storage of material or equipment associated with the home occupation allowed on the site.
- g) The home occupation shall not create any nuisance by way of noise, dust, odour, or smoke, or anything of an offensive or objectionable nature.

- h) There shall be no mechanical or electrical equipment used which creates external noise, or visible or audible interference with home electronics or computer equipment in adjacent dwellings.
- i) When a development permit is issued for a home occupation, such permit shall be terminated should the applicant vacate the property for which the permit has been issued.
- j) Pedestrian or vehicular traffic or parking, shall not, in the opinion of the Development Authority, be generated in excess of that which is characteristic of the district in which the home occupation is located.
- k) Only one (1) commercial vehicle, of a haul capacity not exceeding 5,500.0 kg (12,125.42 lbs.) shall be used in conjunction with the home occupation, or parked or maintained on the site or on the road in proximity to the site. Truck trailers or vehicle accessories or equipment shall not be kept on site unless they are located within an accessory building.
- l) Home occupations shall not involve:
 - (i) activities that use or store hazardous material in quantities exceeding those found in a normal household; or
 - (ii) any use that would in the opinion of the Development Authority, materially interfere with or affect the used, enjoyment, or value of neighboring properties.
- m) The number of non-resident employees or business partners working on site shall not exceed one (1) at any time. No more than two people shall be working at the home occupation site at any time.
- n) Storage related to the business activity and the business activity itself may be allowed in either the dwelling or garage.
- o) The home occupation shall not be allowed if, in the opinion of the Development Authority, such use would be more appropriately located in the Commercial or an Industrial District, having regard for the overall compatibility of the use with the residential character of the area.
- p) The dwelling or garage in which a home occupation is located may have one fascia sign placed on the structure, providing that the sign does not exceed 0.4 m² (4.3 ft²) in area. No other signage will be permitted.
